Volunteer's strength: Mr. Miller shows much dedication to the Inmate Companion and Palliative Care program. He is willing to assist with any patient in the program and always presents with a positive attitude. He works well with staff and inmates and seems to genuinely care for the inmates he is assisting.

Supervisor Remarks: Mr. Miller has been an extremely valuable asset to the Inmate Companion Program for almost three years. He volunteers many hours each week to assist extremely ill patients with socialization, letter writing, and day-to-day activities. He sits with dying inmates and interacts with them in their last days and hours. I would highly recommend him to any hospice program.
